

QUESTION 1

QUESTION 2

1. The European Union is a political and economic union of member states located primarily in Europe. It was established in 1993 by the Maastricht Treaty, which replaced the European Communities. The EU has a population of approximately 450 million people and a total area of 4.5 million square kilometers. It is a major global power and a leading economic and political bloc.

2. The European Union is a political and economic union of member states located primarily in Europe. It was established in 1993 by the Maastricht Treaty, which replaced the European Communities. The EU has a population of approximately 450 million people and a total area of 4.5 million square kilometers. It is a major global power and a leading economic and political bloc.