

Name: _____

Date: _____

Transitional Words Worksheet (Sequencing Part 2)

When you write an essay, you need to use transition words in order to connect ideas together.

Sequence: first, then, next, after that, thus, therefore, in conclusion, finally, to conclude

Directions: Read each sentence and use a transitional word to show sequence.

Example A: I went to the restaurant. I sat next to my friend.

Answer: I went to the restaurant. Then, I sat next to my friend.

1. I went to the theme park. I went on my favorite rides.

2. David and Michael went to a party. They went home.

3. I didn't get in line in time for the movie. I wasn't able to see it.

4. First, I walked to school. I went to my first period class.

5. He did not pay his taxes. He was fined with more money.

6. The man did not complete the work. He did not receive the full payment.
