

Possession and possessive adjectives

Es tu gato.

Son tus gatos.

I. In these pictures, a boy says to one girl Es tu gato (It's your cat) and to the other girl Son tus gatos (They are your cats).

How many cats does the first girl have? _____ How many cats does the second girl have? _____

What are the two words in Spanish for your (familiar)? _____ and _____. When is tu used?

_____ When is tus used? _____

A. You are asking a friend who some in his family are. Form questions with tu or tus.

Modelos: Padre ¿Quién es tu padre? Abuelos ¿Quiénes son tus abuelos?

1. madre _____
2. tíos _____
3. sobrinos _____
4. sobrina _____
5. hijo _____
6. hermanas _____

Es nuestro padre.

Es nuestra madre.

Son nuestros amigos

Son nuestras amigas.

II. Now look at this group of possessive adjectives:

Es nuestro padre.

It's our father.

Es nuestra madre.

It's our mother.

Son nuestros amigos.

They are our friends.

Son nuestras amigas.

They are our friends.

Which subject pronouns do nuestro, nuestra, nuestros and nuestras bring to mind? _____

_____. What do nuestro, nuestra, nuestros and nuestras mean? _____.