

Directions: First, read the following paragraph frame to yourself without filling in the blanks. This will give you a preview of what type of answers will be needed in each blank space. Use information from your reading passage and the work you have done to complete this paragraph frame. Some blanks require just one- or two-worded answers. Others ask that you explain in more detail by providing specific ideas from your reading. Take your time.

The passage taken from the book, _____ by _____ tells a story of _____

_____ is the main character who wishes to _____

_____. A problem arises _____

However, a change in the story occurs when _____ _____, the author, tries to convey a message to his/her readers and then creates a theme for the story. In this passage, the theme is _____

It helps to provide meaning and purpose to the story.