

The Creation of Parliament
by
John G. Seward

1. The point of this paper is...
2. Define the term democracy in the paper.
3. Explain the writing of the paper!
4. The purpose of this paper is...
5. What is the main message of the paper?
6. Explain the writing of the paper!
7. How does the author compare the paper to the people?
8. How many times does the author mention the paper?
9. What is the author's attitude toward the paper?
10. At the end of the first paragraph of the paper is:
"The British people have been made right"
What is the author's attitude toward the paper?
11. Write about the point of the paper. Write at least three complete sentences in a paragraph.