

The location of Sleeping Prince

Once upon a time, there was a great kingdom in a beautiful country. There lived a king and his queen who had a wonderful 12-year old son. The kingdom had been ruled by the old king of the country. However, a prince had a strange dream. He would sleep under the midnight sky and his dream would come true. He thought that the king would be very happy if he could see the prince. The prince also thought that the king would be very happy if he could see the prince. If it is a dream, he will be regarded as real for the prince. If it is a fact, he will be regarded as the prince's dream. Then, one day, there was a beautiful girl who had a magic wand and she could see the prince's dream.

(The queen's dream to see the prince's dream)

Queen : I'm really desperate. I had brought a lot of physicians to look my lovely son. But the result was not successful. I'm really desperate to see my son's dream.

King : Darling queen ... Don't be giving up. We must keep trying and trying. There must be a magical medicine.

(The prince suddenly wakes)

Prince : Mother, I don't really pay attention to the prince. This is not a great thing for me.

Queen : What is your dream?

Prince : I cannot sleep. It seems that I can hear the voice of you that seems very beautiful. I would like to see you.

Queen : I will, watching the prince's dream with my eye ... The one thing I would not do anything for during your dream.

Prince : My mother ... I'm really desperate to see the king's son. I'm really ... I'm really ...

(The queen's dream to see the prince's dream. Then, the prince's dream is a magical medicine.)

Audience : How beautiful, my I give suggestion?

Queen : I'm really desperate to see the prince's dream.

Audience : How about we give an announcement to all corners of the country? We'll send a message of the prince's dream.
