

Advanced English Grammar Quiz

This is a labyrinth where you start at "IN" and move until you get "OUT". Each sentence has to be used before you get out. Each sentence can either be correct or incorrect. If the sentence is correct you should follow the next correct line; if the sentence is incorrect you should follow the dashed line. There are 3 sentences among the 13 which are listed, that indicate you have made a mistake. GOOD LUCK!

PLEASE FIND THE LABYRINTH IS ON THE NEXT SHEET ...

IN. That is the man whose grandfather founded Kentucky State Bank.

1. If she had known about her financial situation, she would have helped him out.
2. They look after their cat while they are away on holiday.
3. Sometimes his children do their homework every afternoon.
4. The task was so difficult she had problems finishing it on time.
5. By the time she arrives, we will finish our homework.
6. I'm sorry! She has made a mistake.
7. The man looked at it last night.
8. When I stopped to talk to Mary, she was picking some flowers in the garden.
9. I'm sorry! She has made a mistake.
10. That room is used for a meeting today.
11. Michael likes playing tennis every day when he is free.
12. If I saw you, I would call a wife to help finding.
13. He'll give you a call as soon as he will arrive.
14. I'm sorry! She has made a mistake.