

Metaphors

Read the poem aloud.

What is the Sun?

the Sun is an orange dangle
sailing across a calm sea

it is a gold coin dropped down a drain in Heaven

the Sun is a yellow beach ball launched high into the summer sky

it is a red thumb-print on a sheet of pale blue paper

the Sun is a milk bottle's gold top floating in a puddle

—W. S. Merwin

How many metaphors for the Sun can you find in this poem? Make a list of them below. Remember: A metaphor is something described as if it were something else. It is like a simile but does not include the words like or as.

an orange dangle.....

Reverse one of the five verses, and change the metaphor to a simile. To do this, you only need to add one word.

.....

Pick a verse from the poem, and write a short paragraph explaining what is meant by the description of the Sun.
