

Name _____

Period _____

Bill Nye: Volcanoes

1. Volcanoes are formed when hot, molten rock from deep within the earth finds its way to the _____.
2. Volcanoes can release _____ and form new land.
3. There are different types of volcanoes but they all do the _____.
4. Volcanoes usually occur where _____ plates run into each other.
5. Hawaiian Islands were formed when pressure in the _____ built up and BLOWN an island was formed.
6. When gas gets hot enough, they _____ and explode.
7. You can see the inside cone of a volcano. Down in the crater is a lava _____.
8. Plants grow in the outside rocky debris that when cooled _____ after it rains.
9. A shield volcano forms when hot lava _____ down the sides quickly.
10. A cinder cone volcano erupts _____.
11. Glass isn't a solid but it's solid _____.
12. There are some volcanoes that may never erupt again. They're _____.
13. _____ volcanoes are almost shaking and rumbling, and shooting off steam.