READING COMPREHENSION

Read the following passage and answer the questions:

was a very important leader who helped get rights for all people of color. A long time ago, people who were not white were treated unfairly in America. He did not like this and led huge groups of people to protest. In his famous speech "I Have a Dream", he said that he dreams of a world where everyone is treated equally, no matter their skin color.
