

Human Brain Lobes

Name: _____

Date: _____

1. Sarah has a big spelling test next week, but she keeps forgetting the words she needs to study. What part of Sarah's brain might be helping her remember things?

2. Jack is in class listening to his teacher, but he gets easily distracted by the noise outside the window. What part of Jack's brain helps him pay attention and stay focused?

3. Lisa is feeling nervous about her school play. Her heart is beating fast, and she's having trouble calming down. Which part of Lisa's brain might be making her feel this way?

4. During gym class, Sam is learning how to balance on one leg. It's tricky, and he wobbles a lot at first. What part of Sam's brain is helping him learn to balance and move his body?

5. Maria and her friends are building a puzzle. They can't seem to find where one piece fits. What part of Maria's brain helps her think and solve problems?

6. Alex loves playing with different textures, like fluffy pillows and rough sandpaper. Which part of Alex's brain recognizes different textures and feelings?