"THE LOST TREASURE"

Jenna and Max were best friends. One day, Max found an old map in his attic. The map showed there was treasure buried in the forest behind their houses.

Jenna wasn't sure it was real, but Max said, "There's only one way to find out!"

They went into the forest, pushing through bushes and climbing over fallen trees. It got darker the further they went, and Jenna felt a little scared. But Max was excited and kept walking.

After walking for a long time, they found a big, flat stone, just like the map showed. Max thought the treasure was buried there. They dug and dug, and finally hit something hard. It was a small, wooden chest.

When they opened the chest, they didn't find gold or jewels. Instead, they found an old, dusty book. Max was disappointed. "That's it?" he asked.

But Jenna thought differently. She opened the book and found strange symbols and writing. "This isn't just any book," she said. "Maybe this is the real treasure!"

Questions:

1. What did Max find in his attic?

2. How did Jenna feel when they were deep in the forest?

3. What did they find inside the chest?

4. What did Jenna think about the book they found?
