

Nocturnal Animals

Name: _____

Date: _____

ACROSS

- Enclosure for the brain and spinal cord
- The field of biology focuses on the normal functions of living organisms
- Top section of the abdomen
- The process of aging
- An organism's essential functional structure
- Related to the abdominal portion of the torso
- What living organisms consist of
- Sections into which the abdomen is divided
- The smallest living unit
- Divide the body into left and right halves
- Region located on either side of the abdomen
- Single-celled organism
- Imaginary lines that split the body into upper and lower parts

DOWN

- Description of any body structure
- Plane that separates the body into front and back sections
- Feedback mechanism returning a part of an output
- Front side of the body
- Collection of organs working in unison
- Scientific study of human bodily functions
- The body's inclination to maintain stability
- Magnification of an effect through its own influence
- Region surrounding the navel