THE SECRET GARDEN

Lina loved exploring her grandmother's big garden. One day, she discovered a small wooden door hidden behind a rose bush. She asked herself, "What is behind this door?" She gently pushed it open and found a hidden garden filled with colorful flowers and butterflies. Lina couldn't believe her eyes. She asked her grandmother, "Who made this secret garden?" Her grandmother smiled and said, "It was planted by your great-grandfather long ago." As Lina wandered through the garden, she found a sparkling pond with a little boat. "Where does this boat go?" she wondered. She decided to hop in and paddle around the pond. While paddling, Lina saw a beautiful swan gliding by. "Why is the swan here?" she asked. Her grandmother explained, "The swan has lived in this garden for many years and loves the pond." Lina spent the entire afternoon exploring the secret garden and felt incredibly happy. "When can I come back?" she asked her grandmother. Her grandmother replied, "You can visit anytime you like, my dear."
